What is IBS PegBoard?

A practical and highly adaptable perforated hardboard panel, PegBoard creates tidy spaces from empty spaces in conventional and unconventional places. IBS Pegboard is also great to use in the house to hang things in your kitchen or office space. The perforated holes also act as a great noise reduction panel either on the wall or ceiling.

This remarkable versatility is enhanced by a large range of functional fittings available from most leading hardware stores country-wide.

IBS Pegboard is a LFE or Low Formaldehyde Emissions panel which makes it safe to use in your home.

PegBoard can easily be cut to size with normal wood working tools and painted to match the decor of your choice.

A large range of accessories is available from most leading hardware stores.
